

Vice President of Instruction

Location: Gresham, OR

Salary: $147,939 - $222,000 annually

For best consideration: apply by Jan. 21, 2023

Mt. Hood Community College (MHCC) invites applications for the position of Vice President of Instruction (VPI). The College, ideally located in the Pacific Northwest in the shadow of majestic Mount Hood, is a community of over 18,000 students and 1,000+ dedicated employees, with a service area that spans urban and rural communities. Equity and Inclusion are integral principles to our work and decision-making and MHCC has been recognized for these efforts to systematically address racism, poverty, and language barriers.

The new VPI will be an innovative, inclusive, and collaborative leader who promotes the success of the college and its students, faculty, and staff while fostering close ties with the community. This position plays a pivotal role in achieving equitable outcomes for our students, and the VPI will take a lead role in enhancing and transforming MHCC instructional programs and services. The ideal candidate will have an understanding of the unique opportunities facing MHCC and community colleges operating in the 21st century.

Mt. Hood Community College offers an exceptional benefits package that includes vacation, sick and personal leave; medical, dental, vision, life, AD&D, and long-term disability insurance; retirement through Oregon PERS, including generous employer contributions; tuition waiver plan and professional development funds; and an Employee Assistance Program (EAP).
